The Call to Worship

Let us come together in hope and joy.

For this is a day to celebrate and to remember.

It is a day to give thanks and praise to God for life and love and eternal life.

This is a day to remember and be thankful for those who have gone on before us.

It is a day to celebrate the virtues of love, family, friendship, compassion and faithfulness.

In this time as we remember, may we feel God's presence as we join now in prayer.

Acts of Faith & Praise

Morning Prayer: God, you are the Gardener, gently cultivating the soil of our lives. Through your Spirit, we receive the gifts of water and light and life. Thank you for all you give to us, for our families and our friends, and life and love. Nurture us gently in this time. Nurture us with your grace so that we may feel your comforting presence. Fill our hearts at this time. Fill us with a gentle gift of your love and mercy. May we be gentle and forgiving as you are to us, O God. And may your grace and love surround us with your comforting help and presence. May the pain and ache of life's challenges and disappointments be gently brushed away through your great Spirit. May the burdens that seem so great right now in our world – hunger, war, and violence – be transformed through the healing love of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Litany of Faith

Jesus said, "Love your neighbor as yourself."

"Love your enemies," and "You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

Jesus said, "Come unto me, all you that labor and are heavy-laden."

"Whatever you wish that men would do to you, do to them," and "Love your enemies."

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life."

"In my father's house are many rooms," and "Peace I give to you; let not your hearts be troubled and do not them be afraid."

The Gloria Patri*

The First Reading

Acts 5: 27 - 32

The Affirmation of Faith: We experience God as good and loving, believing that the Holy One continues to create the cosmos and to invite co-creators.

We experience the teachings of Jesus as foundational for civilization and for our personal living. We experience the Holy Spirit as the catalyst for thinking outside worn boxes; empowering our action in behalf of fairness, peacefulness and collaboration; strengthening us for each day's tasks. Together, we encourage one another to continue the journey to Holy Mystery, to explore new symbols, new rituals and fresh interpretations of divine actions. Together, we enjoy human and divine interactions. Hallelujah!
