*The Call to Worship

The Lord said, "You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you."

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the warmth of your love.

Holy Spirit, come now and fill our lives with your 'comforting presence.'

Acts of Faith & Praise

Morning Prayer: O God, we are here to rejoice with those who say, "Let us go the house of the Lord. We are here to lift up you, whose throne is in heaven. We are here to call upon you, for you will hear us and answer us. And we are here to praise your name for your love and faithfulness, for "you have exalted above all things your name and your Son, Jesus Christ. Thank you for your presence among us. Amen."

The Children's Moment

The Litany of Faith

A master forgave a slave much.

God has forgiven the entire world.

But the slave condemned another for almost nothing.

And we punish others for the slightest infraction.

We feast on God's mercy, hoarding it for ourselves.

We starve others of forgiveness to keep our own bellies full.

Show us, oh gracious God, that you have prepared enough joy, love and mercy for all of us.

Help us remember your forgiveness is a well of water with no bottom.

All: let us pass the place of forgiveness to each other. Let us fill each other's cup with your mercy.

The Gloria Patri*

Luke 7: 36 – 8:3

The First Reading

The Affirmation of Faith: This space is prepared for you: the light of a candle, enough to chase away the darkness and light your way and the colors of the stained-glass window, sufficient to brighten your dullest thoughts; the gentle music that linger in our heart, floats in the mind and soothes our worried brow; the words and images that tease and probe, ease us on our journey in faith.
